

Bay Area Reopening Tracker

CLICK HERE FOR STATEWIDE REOPENING GUIDANCE (updated April 28, 2021)
County	Tier	Current Primary Order	Additional Current Orders, Summaries, and Press Releases	Notes
Alameda	Orange	January 25, 2021 Health Officer Order No. 21-01	April 2, 2021 updates regarding gatherings and travel	The January 25 Order announces that the county will follow the statewide reopening framework based on its tier assignment. The April 2 updates reflect updates to that statewide framework.
Contra Costa	Orange	March 25, 2021 Health Officer Order No. HO-COVID19-43 (repeal of local orders)	Contra Costa County Health Service's summary sheet titled "Contra Costa County Openings at a Glance"	Local orders repealed March 25, 2021, county rules now align with statewide reopening framework. Moved to Orange tier April 7.
Marin	Orange	October 27, 2020 Health Officer's Risk Reduction Order	MarinRecovers.com's Guidelines Businesses describing reopening rules	The October 27 Risk Reduction Order is back in effect as of January 25, 2021, when the state lifted its regional stay-home order.
Napa	Orange	Board of Supervisor's November 10, 2020 update to resolution for safe and healthy business operations	Health and Human Services' County-specific guidance for businesses	Local order tracks state rules based on tier assignment. Moved to Orange tier April 7, 2021.
San Francisco	Orange	April 15, 2021 order	Directives for specific industries	Starting April 15, 2021, businesses hosting live indoor events, including ticketed events, may reopen at reduced capacity, with masking requirements for patrons.
San Mateo	Orange	June 17, 2020 Health Officer's Masking and Distancing Order	Health Officer's supplemental statements and orders	County follows statewide reopening framework for businesses; local social distancing and face covering rules still apply. Local businesses must use county-specific social distancing checklist.

Santa Clara	Orange	March 24, 2021 Health Officer's Mandatory Directive on Capacity Limitations	March 23 Santa Clara County Health Officer Advisory on COVID-19 Risk Reduction Measures
Sonoma	Orange	June 17, 2020 Health Officer's Stay-at-Home Order (C19-15)	January 28, 2021 Health Officer Order for quarantine of people exposed to COVID-19	Local order tracks state rules based on tier assignment. Moved to Orange tier April 7, 2021.
Solano	Red	March 9, 2021 County Press Release announcing return to Red tier		Local order tracks state rules based on tier assignment. Moved to Red tier March 10, 2021.
Tier Key – Yellow: Most indoor business operations are open with modifications; Orange: Some indoor business operations are open with modifications; Red: Some nonessential indoor business operations are closed				