

Bay Area COVID-19 Rules Tracker

County	Local Masking Mandate?	Additional Local Rules	Notes
Alameda	Yes (August 3, 2021)	Quarantine and isolation requirements for persons exposed to COVID-19.	Masks must be worn in all indoor public spaces, which includes business and office locations open to the general public. There is no exemption for vaccinated persons. Masks are strongly encouraged for all persons in non-public indoor settings where people from different households intermingle.
Contra Costa	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Yes (August 2, 2021) Amendment (October 14, 2021) 	Quarantine and Isolation requirements for persons exposed to COVID-19	Masks required in all indoor public spaces, which includes business and office locations (whether open to the general public or not). Starting November 1, 2021 , masks may be removed in certain indoor settings where fewer than 100 people are present, everyone present is fully vaccinated, the space is not open to the general public, nobody present has known symptoms of or exposure to COVID-19, and the employer/host complies with certain signage and record-keeping requirements.
Marin	Yes (October 8, 2021)	Quarantine and Isolation requirements for persons exposed to COVID-19	Masks required in all indoor public spaces, which includes business and office locations (whether open to the general public or not). Starting October 15, 2021 , masks may be removed in certain indoor settings where fewer than 100 people are present, everyone present is fully vaccinated, the space is not open to the general public, and the employer/host keeps track of who enters the space.
Napa	Yes (August 5, 2021)	Quarantine and Isolation requirements for persons exposed to COVID-19	Masks required in all indoor public spaces, which includes business and office locations (whether open to the general public or not). There is no exemption for vaccinated persons.
San Francisco	Yes (October 15, 2021)	Quarantine and isolation requirements for persons exposed to COVID-19	Masks required in all indoor public spaces, which includes business and office locations (whether open to the general public or not). Starting October 15, 2021 , masks may be removed in certain offices, fitness centers, and religious facilities which are not open to the general public, where all persons present are fully vaccinated, and where the facility complies with certain ventilation requirements.

San Mateo	Yes (August 2, 2021)	None	Masks required in all indoor public spaces, which includes business and office locations (whether open to the general public or not). There is no exemption for vaccinated persons.
Santa Clara	Yes (August 2, 2021)	None	Masks required in all indoor public spaces, which includes business and office locations (whether open to the general public or not). There is no exemption for vaccinated persons.
Sonoma	Yes (August 2, 2021)	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Formal recommendation that employers require vaccination or testing 2. Quarantine requirements for individuals exposed to COVID-19 	Masks required in all indoor public spaces, which includes business and office locations (whether open to the general public or not). There is no exemption for vaccinated persons.
Solano	No	None	Solano County does not have a local health order or directive in effect; it defaults to the statewide rules, which require masks for all people in certain settings, and for all unvaccinated people in any indoor public setting (whether open to the general public or not).